

About Applied Canine Behaviors

Sandra Groschwitz founded Applied Canine Behaviors, LLC in March 2013 with a vision to be a top shelf dog care and training provider in our dog-rich community. Sandra aspires to go above and beyond with a beautiful facility and setting, a unique and strongly applied approach to dog training, and a professional skillset to exceed customers' expectations unequivocally.

At Applied Canine Behaviors, we don't just board and train dogs. Instead, we are trust builders, relationship enablers, effective communications catalysts, and distinguished care providers. Not only does Sandra have an immensely rich, 18 year long background in training and caring for dogs, but she also has 13 years of Fortune 100 professional experience and MBA education to truly position herself as a business concept which stands out from the norm.

Our Values

- COMMITTED to treat customers and dogs professionally, courteously, and with respect
- INVESTED to offer effective training tools to meet personal training objectives
- DEDICATED to have a superbly clean and safe facility for all

Position Title

Kennel Assistant

Position Summary

We are seeking an attentive and enthusiastic kennel assistant to oversee the well-being of the dogs in our care. The kennel assistant's responsibilities include cleaning cages and kennels, administering medication, and providing dogs with food and water.

To ensure success as a kennel assistant, you should be a self starter and be able to anticipate and tend to the needs of dogs proactively. Ultimately, a top-notch kennel assistant will be able to tailor their care according to the dog's physical, emotional, and behavioral difficulties.

You Will

- Ensure that the dogs always have fresh water and food.
- Clean animal waste, spilled food, hair, and other debris from kennels, cages and exercise area.
- Dispose of trash in a timely manner.
- Accompany and play with dogs during exercise times.
- Calm dogs who are in distress.
- Report significant changes in well being to supervisor

About You

- High School Diploma or equivalent
- Previous experience caring for dogs is advantageous.
- Strong organizational and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent interpersonal skills.
- Physically fit and agile.
- Capacity to lift up to 30 pounds unaided.
- A passion for animal welfare.
- Available to work during evenings, weekends, and public holidays, if required

Position Hours and Wage

Based on experience, the position pays $15 - $20 hourly. Work hours are flexible and/or as needed. In a typical week, this position is needed 5-10 hours per week with growth opportunity into more hours and responsibilities, including training dogs.
